

K's Theatrical Korps

Presents their 2007 – 2008 Season

Sep 7-9, 14-16

Over The River And Through The Woods By Joe DiPietro

For 29 years, Nick has been showing up for Sunday dinner at the home of his grandparents. But this Sunday, Nick will tell them the good news that he is up for a promotion...and the bad news, that a move to Seattle is part of the deal. Can four grandparents create a perfect plan to get their grandson to stay? No matter what your grandparents are like, we guarantee you'll find at least one of them on stage, in this delightful family comedy created by the author of I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change.

Move Over, Mrs Markham

By Ray Cooney and John Chapman

Philip Markham, a publisher of children's books, is asked by his business partner, Henry Lodge, if he can borrow his flat to gallivant with his latest girlfriend. Philip and his wife will be out for the evening and he reluctantly agrees. At the same time, Joanna Markham is being persuaded by Linda Lodge to let her borrow the empty flat to entertain her lover. With some misgivings, Joanna agrees. What nobody knows is that the interior designer who has been decorating the flat for the past three months has decided that this is the night that he and Slyvie, the au pair girl will try out the new oval bed. When the Markhams' evening out is canceled, it is too late to let any of the parties know and three sets of hopeful lovers converge on the bedroom at the same time. The situation is further complicated by the arrival of Olive Harriet Smythe, a straight-laced authoress of children's books. The frantic efforts of the Markhams to hide the amorous goings-on and, at the same time sign up Miss Smythe, lead the audience on a madcap romp of an evening of laughter and merriment to follow

Nov 9-11, 16-18

Return To Hollywood (cabaret)

KTK's yearly crowd favorite. Musical entertainment cabaret style. Patrons are seated 8 to a table. Complimentary wine, beer, soda, popcorn and pretzels. This show is always a hit.

Feb 22-24, 29-Mar 2

Little Women (the musical)

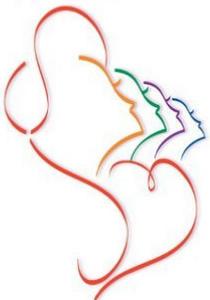

Book by Allan Knee

Music by Jason Howland

Lyrics by Mindi Dickstein

Little Women: The musical presents an engrossing saga of the March sisters - Beth, Amy, Meg and Jo, as they grow up in dreadful Civil War America. This new musical sensation is based on the hugely famous book by Louisa May Alcott. The novel has been very well adapted by well known theater personality Allen Knee. The show takes the audiences through the timeless tale of Jo, a young and vibrant writer and her two sisters during the agonizing Civil War period. The well set plot takes the audiences through the minds of the characters with so much to experience and feel.

LITTLE WOMEN
the musical

June 13-15, 20-22